Privacy & Cookie Policy

Updated: July 2026

Aeoliki Marine Ltd is a maritime communications and compliance services company based in Hitchin, UK. We take the privacy and security of personal information we hold about you seriously. This policy explains how we collect and use your personal information, and how we use cookies on our website.

What information do we collect and how do we use it?

We only collect personal information when an enquiry is made or an individual engages with our services. When you submit our contact form, your information is securely handled by Web3Forms (web3forms.com), a third-party form processing service, and delivered to us by email. We do not store your submission data on our own servers, and we do not share your information for marketing purposes with anyone else.

The personal information you may provide includes: your name, company name, vessel name, IMO number, flag state, email address, phone number, and the content of your message. We collect only what is necessary to respond to your enquiry or fulfil our obligations to you.

We will only use your personal information for certain legal reasons set out in data protection law:

- (a) Contract Reason – To perform our obligations to you under a contract we have entered with you.
- (b) Legitimate Interests Reason – Where the use of your personal information is necessary for our legitimate interests, so long as that interest does not override your fundamental rights, freedoms or interests.
- (c) Legal Obligation Reason – Where we must use your personal information to perform a legal obligation by which we are bound.
- (d) Consent Reason – Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information for a specific reason.

Marketing

You may receive communications from us about similar services, where either you have consented to this or we have another legal reason to contact you. You have the right to stop us contacting you for marketing purposes at any time by emailing office@aeoliki.co.uk. If you do request that we stop marketing to you, this will not prevent us from sending communications to you regarding existing contracts or services.

Third Party Services

Our website uses the following third-party services:

Web3Forms (web3forms.com): Processes contact form submissions and delivers them to us by email. Web3Forms receives the information you enter in our contact form. Please refer to their privacy policy at web3forms.com for details of how they handle your data.

Cloudflare (cloudflare.com): Our website is hosted and delivered via Cloudflare's global network. Cloudflare may set a cookie (`_cf_bm`) on your device for bot management and security purposes. Please refer to Cloudflare's privacy policy for further details.

Access to your information

You have the right to request a copy of the personal information we hold about you. To make such a request, please contact us using the details below.

Cookie Policy

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small data files placed on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work, or to work more efficiently, and to provide information to website owners.

How we use Cookies

Our website uses a minimal number of cookies. We do not use cookies for advertising or tracking purposes. The cookies in use are described below.

Essential

These cookies are strictly necessary for the website to function correctly and cannot be disabled.

`_cf_bm`

Set by Cloudflare to identify and manage automated traffic. Required for bot protection and security of the website. This cookie expires at the end of your browser session.

Analytics & Marketing

We do not currently use tracking, analytics or marketing cookies. If we introduce analytics tools in future, this policy will be updated and a cookie consent mechanism will be presented to you before any such cookies are set.

Disabling Cookies

You have the right to accept or reject cookies. You can control cookies through your browser settings. Please note that disabling essential cookies may affect the functionality of this website.
